

Andrew Piggott, 2013

What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

Engineering, fixing cranes, conveyors, robots and programming automated sites

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

Not getting into uni debt and not having to interact with people

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

Be dedicated and hard working

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

Uni isn't the most important thing you can do well in life without a degree, experience and work ethics are more important
