

Tom Clough, 2018

What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

Surveying. Commercial property acquisitions and disposals. Asset management.

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

Naturally ended up in this career just by picking the subjects I was most interested in.

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

Who you know is very important so try build a good network and make good connections

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

When I left school I didn't even know my current job existed, so don't worry if you don't know what you want to do
