What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

Minister of Religion. Counseling, listening and supporting people physically, emotionally, mentally and spiritually. Leading groups, public speaking, teaching, admin etc.

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

My faith

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

See if you could shadow someone in the role first - there's more to it than perhaps meets the eye.

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

It's ok to not know what you want to do as a career yet. You have many years to decide. And even if it feels like you can't do something, you can.
