What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

Currently at uni doing psychology

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

I would love to help people and mrs brown <3

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

It's hard both academically and emotionally but it's worth it in the end (I hope)

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

You're a lot more than your grades and you can go back into nursing in later life
