What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

General Manager of a night club, started as bar staff & across 6 years been promoted twice into this position. This job entails, event planning, rota, wages, tills/cashing up closing & opening the venue, general maintenance of staff/hiring & more.

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

I did want to teach drama, I did my degree & gained a place at Warwick to do my PGCE but I was only 21 so this took a back seat, I didn't want to be a teacher immediately after leaving university so young so stepped into something else mentioned above & this has taken a back seat for the time being.

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

I almost wish I went on to do an apprenticeship and didn't jump straight into a degree. But the time I had at university made me into the person I am today, it gave me academic & professional skills that have been invaluable in lots of areas in my personal & professional life.
