

Rebecca Greene, 1996

What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

Brand Manager at a Fashion Agency. Supply to retail stores, Garden Centres etc at wholesale. Meet with buyers and store owners to sell to the end consumer.

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

Staying fashion at college and university

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

Be patient, have faith in yourself and believe that you can put anything you put your mind too. Fashion is a very hard industry to get into!

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

Always be yourself and never be a follower or try and fit in. Be your own unique self and if people don't like you, that's on them not you!
