

The Department

Media Studies Department

The Media Studies department is made up of three members of staff who have over 45 years of experience teaching Media Studies and have taught the AQA New Specification since its launch.

All staff are well qualified specialists and teach across the full age and ability range including A level.

Staff are encouraged to have experience of examining for AQA, our awarding body, which is an excellent way of understanding the examination process and the focus of practical course work. It gives valuable insight which is readily passed on to students.

The Media Studies team:

- Mrs J Harding- Head of Department for Media
- Miss L Jennings - English and Media teacher
- Mrs Machin- Assistant Head for teaching and learning and attendance
